

To the Commissioners of the FCC: I pay for XM Satellite Radio, and I listen to the traffic and weather channels every day. There is no reason why the NAB should determine the content of programming on XM Satellite Radio, especially to the extent that they force XM to eliminate traffic and weather. I cannot get what I hear on XM anywhere else. On the public's behalf, reject Petition 04-160 of the NAB.

Sincerely,

Mary Phillips